The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 2. to Saturday May 6. 1727.

St. James's, May 6.

THE following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Pembrock, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Campbell, of Stackpole-Court, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Pembrock, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon (with Hearts full of Loyalty to your Majeſty and Affection to our Country,) moſt humbly to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and paternal Care of your People, which has ſo eminently appeared in this extraordinary and important Conjuncture of Affairs.

We are warmed with a juſt Reſentment and Indignation at the Inſolence of thoſe foreign Powers, who, in open Violation of repeated ſolemn Treaties, and in defiance of all Right, have ſet up a Trade prejudicial to, and inconſiſtent with the Intereſt and Privileges of your Kingdoms, have attacked the valuable and rightful Acquiſitions of the Britiſh Crown in Spain, and not content with theſe Outrages, have preſumed to offer perſonal Affronts to your ſacred Majeſty, and made impotent Efforts to create a Diffidence between your Majeſty and your People.

In Conjunction with our Loyal Fellow-Subjects, we ſhall always moſt religiouſly reſiſt all Attempts whatſoever that ſhall be any where carried on, or have the leaſt Tendency towards bringing us under Popery and Slavery, and ſhall, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, endeavour to preſerve the great Bleſſings of Liberty and juſt Adminiſtration of Laws, which we now enjoy under the gracious Government of your moſt Excellent Majeſty.

And we humbly deſire to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will be ready upon all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to defend and ſupport your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment both in Church and State.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Durham, accompanied by the High Sheriff, and ſeveral of the Nobility and Gentry of the County. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, we behold your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Care, in ſecuring to your People, by early Alliances, and the wiſe Employment of your Fleet (the Glory and Strength of this Nation) thoſe Rights and Poſſeſſions ſo neceſſary to their Riches and Greatneſs. Would thoſe Princes who are now combined to deprive us of them (in ſpight of their moſt ſolemn Treaties) remember what they themſelves enjoy from the Friendſhip and Arms of your Majeſty and this Nation, they could not but expect an Indignation and Reſentment in your People, equal to the Injuries and ill Returns, if any can be equal to thoſe you have received from them.

[Price Three Pence.]

A People who have behaved with ſo much Bravery in Behalf of others, will not be mean ſpirited in the Cauſe of all that is dear to Men who have been nouriſhed up with a Love of Liberty, and have enjoyed it in the moſt amiable Perfection under the Influence of your Government. We muſt ourſelves forget, as much as our Enemies have done, the Conduct of our Fathers, before we can tamely reſign what their Arms and generous Dangers have obtained for their Country. But were our Intereſts ſecure, were our Trade, our Liberty, our Greatneſs, and what is ſtill more valuable, our Religion, not attempted to be wreſted from us; had they not agreed to fetter us with the Wretchedneſs and Slavery of Popery and the Pretender, (the Contempt and Averſion of every one who hath experienced the Comforts of Freedom) yet Gratitude (which is a Vertue reverenced in this Nation, how much ſoever they may deſpiſe it) will oblige us to demand with utmoſt Ardour, Satisfaction for the Indignities lately offered by the Emperour's Memorial to your moſt Sacred Perſon. 'Tis an unexampled Humility of Politicks, for a Prince ſo far to diſregard the Dignity of his own Station, as thus baſely to appeal to the Subjects of another. In vain would they evaſively deny their Engagements in Behalf of the Pretender, when in Violation of the Law of Nations, an Attempt is made to raiſe a Rebellion among us; a Behaviour no otherwiſe to be accounted for, than that it was in Purſuit of that very Deſign, and in Compliance with his Adherents. Your People thus called on, thus provoked, think it their Duty to expreſs the Reſentments of their Hearts, and in this publick Manner to declare their fulleſt Confidence in that Royal Word, which has never once deceived them, and which we ſhall always rely on, as the beloved Security of all that is dear to us.

Your Majeſty may depend on the chearful Concurrence of your Subjects, in all Meaſures you think neceſſary to the Support of your own Honour, and the Defence of their Rights; and 'tis with real Joy we ſee that hitherto they have been ſuch, as thoſe only have found Fault with, who are either our open Enemies, or whoſe Cenſure muſt derive Honour to your Adminiſtration.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Cork, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutentant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Cork, aſſembled at a General Aſſize at Cork, the 18th Day of March, 1726.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with the deepeſt Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under the happy Influence of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

Our Hearts are filled with juſt Reſentment at the unreaſonable Attempts of ſome foreign Powers, who envy us in the preſent flouriſhing Condition of our Religion, Liberties and Laws; but we are ſenſible no human Contrivance can rob us of theſe happy Enjoyments, but the depriving us of the Government of the Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and to that End continually threaten us with what we moſt deſpiſe, the impoſing on us a Popiſh Pretender.

Give us Leave therefore to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ſo thoroughly ſenſible, that our Intereſts and Well-beings depend intirely on the Proſperity of your glorious Family, that we ſhall be always ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your ſacred Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe, againſt all your Enemies both at home and abroad.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders, aſſembled at a General Aſſizes held for the County of Waterford, this 8th Day of March 1726, beg Leave to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty, with Hearts truly thankful for your Majeſty's great Care and Goodneſs, in endeavouring to prevent your People from being involved in War.

When we ſee the Emperour of Germany (in whoſe Favour Great-Britain moſt generouſly expended her Blood and Treaſure) ſtrictly united with the King of Spain in Deſigns which have no leſs in View than an Intention to affront your Majeſty and your Royal Family in your moſt juſt Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, to diſturb your moſt wiſe and mild Government, to intercept the Peace and Happineſs, and to invade the Rights and Privileges of your People, our Breaſts are filled with Indignation and Reſentment; and we take this Occaſion to expreſs our Deteſtation of ſuch Meaſures and Counſels as are not only prejudicial to the Trade and Commerce merce of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, but deſtructive of our Religious and Civil Rights.

As your Majeſty in your great Wiſdom has taken early and powerful Meaſures to oppoſe the Attempts of your Enemies, ſo we do aſſure your moſt ſacred Majeſty, that at the Expence of every thing dear to us, we will endeavour to preſerve to ourſelves the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign, and the happy Proſpect to our Poſterity of a Proteſtant King in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe till the End of Time.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Donegall, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Donegall, being truly ſenſible of our Happineſs in the full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights under your Majeſty's moſt gracious and auſpicious Reign, muſt unavoidably be filled with all juſt Reſentment at the Inſolence and Ingratitude of the Emperour and Spain, not only in attempting your Majeſty's Garriſon of Gibraltar, but alſo in preſuming to impoſe on us a Popiſh Pretender and the Popiſh Religion.

'Tis ſurpriſing that thoſe Powers, who within our Memory were ſupported and protected by the Britiſh Arms, ſhould make ſuch a Return, and ſhould be ſo deſtitute of all Senſe of Vertue and Honour, as to ſpurn at their Benefactors to the utmoſt of their Power, and deſtroy thoſe who ſaved them.

All Europe knows that your Majeſty's Forces are not capable of receiving any additional Courage, but the Fire of Indignation (we doubt not) will raiſe them to ſuch a Pitch as will (if poſſible) pay your Majeſty's Enemies the full and juſt Reward of their Perfidiouſneſs.

Your Majeſty's Wiſdom, and your accuſtomed Royal Care for the Welfare and Honour of your People, ſufficiently convince us of the Neceſſity of augmenting your Majeſty's Forces by Sea and Land: Your Majeſty's Courage, Conduct and Experience leave us no Room to doubt of the Succeſs of your Majeſty's ſo juſt, neceſſary and honourable an Undertaking.

And we take this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty, and we ſolemnly declare that we will to the utmoſt of our Power ſupport your Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, with all the Reſolution and Affection that is due from a well-governed People to a gracious Sovereign.

The following humble Addreſs of the Biſhop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Cloyne, and Clergy of the Dioceſe, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Exceellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Cloyne, and Clergy of the Dioceſe, March 24, 1726-7.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Cloyne, and Clergy of the Dioceſe, as we are truly ſenſible of the many great and invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Adminiſtration, and look upon your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe as the Support, under Almighty God, of our Conſtitution both in Church and State, think it our Duty on every proper Occaſion, to repeat in a publick Way to your Majeſty our ſincere and moſt zealous Aſſurances of that Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which we have always in our Hearts.

And now that we find ourſelves threatened with a bloody and deſtructive War, and ſee Alliances entered into, and Hoſtilities already begun, to ſupport in one Place a Trade highly detrimental to that of theſe Kingdoms, and in another to wreſt out of your Majeſty's Hands a Fortreſs of the utmoſt Importance; and what is more to be abhorred than all, a Deſign formed to ſet a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne, which by the Providence of God, and the Conſtitution and Laws of our Country, is your Majeſty's undoubted Right;

We cannot but expreſs our warmeſt Reſentments and Indignation at this Treatment of your Majeſty and theſe your Kingdoms, ſo ungrateful in one of the Princes allied againſt us, and ſo unjuſt in both.

The timely Diſcovery of theſe Confederacies muſt be attributed to your Majeſty's vigilant Adminiſtration, and to your Wiſdom, the taking ſuch Precautions, and the contracting ſuch Alliances as may prevent the diſmal Conſequences thereof.

Theſe

These Conſiderations, as well as the many other Bleſſings we receive under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, engage us in the ſtrongeſt Manner not only to make all poſſible Returns of Allegiance and Gratitude to your Majeſty, but to enforce the ſame Duties upon the Conſciences of all committed to our Charge. And as we in this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions are ſurrouuded with Numbers of People, whoſe Religion naturally alienates them from your Majeſty's Government, and neceſſarily ſubjects them to a foreign Juriſdiction, we ſhall in our ſeveral Stations endeavour by all Means in our Power to reclaim them from their Errors, and make them one with us.

And we ſhall continue to offer up our fervent Prayers to the King of Kings, that He would always give Succeſs to your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, and long preſerve you to us for the Good of this Church and Nation; and that the Imperial Crown, which your Majeſty now ſo happily wears, may deſcend to your lateſt Poſterity.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, the 24th Day of March, Anno Dom. 1726.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WHEN we reflect on the full Enjoyment we have had of our Religious and Civil Rights ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, we think it our Duty in the preſent Situation of Affairs, in Concurrence with the reſt of your loyal Subjects, to expreſs our hearty Thanks for the wiſe and early Meaſures your moſt ſacred Majeſty hath taken for the Preſervation of them.

It is with the higheſt Reſentment and Indignation, that we ſee the Honour and Poſſeſſions of your Crown attack'd by one Prince, and the Trade of your Subjects invaded by another, whoſe high Obligations to your Kingdoms might have directed him to more juſtifiable Undertakings.

We hope there are none of your Proteſtant Subjects ſo far given up to Deluſion, as to think it their Advantage to exchange the great Defender of their Religion, and Protector of their Liberty, for a Popiſh Pretender, the irreconcileable Enemy of both.

As we of this City and County, and our Anceſtors, had the Honour to diſtinguiſh ourſelves by a hearty Affection and firm Adherence to His late Majeſty King William the Third, in the late happy Revolution; ſo we beg Leave at this Time humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are firmly united in Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and whenever the Day of Neceſſity ſhall demand a more active Teſtimony of it, we ſhall be ready, at the Expence of all that is valuable to us, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in your illuſtrious Family, as the greateſt Evidence we can ſhew of our Senſe of the many Bleſſings we poſſeſs under your Majeſty's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Ennis, the 8th Day of April 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, with all Humility beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our dutiful Acknowledgements of your tender and paternal Care of us, ſhewn in the early Meaſures your Majeſty has taken to obviate and diſappoint Schemes lately entered into, deſtructive of our Conſtitution in Church and State, our Trade, our Liberties, and all that is dear and valuable to us.

The Wiſdom of your Councils, the Prudence of your Adminiſtration, and the Lenity of your gracious Reign, fill us with the deepeſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your ſacred Majeſty; but when we compare our preſent Happineſs with the Miſeries we or our Anceſtors have felt under the Yoke of Popiſh Tyranny, every Bleſſing deſcends upon us doubly endeared by the Compariſon.

Too much have the Proteſtants of this Kingdom ſuffered under that Arbitrary Government, not to make us look with Abhorrence and Deteſtation on any Projects calculated to introduce the Pretender; but we cannot expreſs whether our Amazement or our Deteſtation be greater, when we conſider one of the Princes engaged in theſe Attempts preſerved on his Throne by the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, and the Blood and Treaſure of your People, now acting in manifeſt Violation of ſolemn Treaties, and diſperſing, under the ſpecious Name of a Memorial, an inſolent Libel, no leſs wickedly than vainly intended to ſow Sedition and Jealouſies in the Hearts of your Subjects.

But however unmindful of Benefits received his preſent Conduct ſpeaks him, we conceive no doubt but your Majeſty's Reſentment of ſuch Indignities will give your good Subjects a proper Opportunity of exerting themſelves in Vindication of a Prince to whom we are not more bound by our Duty than we are by our Affections.

As we have offered our humble Thanks for the Bleſſings derived to us from your Majeſty, ſo we beg you will graciouſly accept our dutiful Aſſurances to contribute with our utmoſt Ability to carry on thoſe Meaſures ſo wiſely concerted to preſerve thoſe Bleſſings to us through the Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign, and to hand them down to our Poſterity under a long Series of Succeſſours of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, return your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for the wiſe and indefatigable Pains your Majeſty and Council have taken to preſerve the general Peace of Europe, our Trade and Liberties (ſo dangeronſly Struck at) by a timely Preparation to protect and defend them, when neither ſolemn Treaties, Gratitude or Juſtice are regarded, eſpecially by one who owes his Empire to the Crown of Great Britain and its Allies.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will do every Thing in our Power to ſupport and defend your Royal Perſon and the Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Family, againſt all Attempts at Home or Abroad, that ſhall be made in favour of the Pretender or his Adherents, or any of your Majeſty's Enemies. And we pray that God may long preſerve your ſacred Majeſty, who hath always been an indulgent Father to your People, a Protector and Defender of the Proteſtant Religion and Liberties of all Europe.

Gibraltar, April 7, O. S. Col. Middleton's and Col. Hayes's Regiments arriving here the 26th paſt, and the ſame Tranſports having brought a good Number of Tents, Governour Clayton has cauſed three Regiments to encamp; and has quartered moſt of the reſt of the Garriſon ſafe from Cannon-Shot and Shells. As yet the Enemy have done us very little Damage, either in our Works, or Loſs of Men. The Enemy's Batteries have been in great Diſorder for five or ſix Days paſt, during which Time they have fired very little; and we are conſtantly at work in ſtrengthening ours, and making new ones, for which Sir Charles Wager (who with his Squadron came into this Bay the 27th paſt,) has furniſhed us with 24 more Cannon; all which will be mounted by Tomorrow Night, the greateſt Part being now in our Batteries.

Gibraltar, April 10. O. S. Yeſterday arrived Colonel Cosby with 500 Men from Port Mahon. Our Garriſon is in great Spirit and perfect Order, and we do not in the leaſt doubt but the Spaniards will repent their undertaking this Siege.

Caſſel, May 5. N. S. His Excellency Brigadier Sutton, Envoy Extraordinary of the King of Great Britain, arrived here the 29th of April at Night. The next Day having notified his Arrival to the Preſident Dalwych, M. Reydeſſel Gentleman of the Bedchamber to the Landgrave came to ſignify to him, that his moſt Serene Highneſs was diſpoſed to grant him an Audience the Day following. To this he was accordingly conducted the Firſt Inſtant in his Highneſs's Coaches, attended by Monſ. Reydeſſel, and ſeveral other Gentlemen of his Highneſs's Court; was very graciouſly received by his moſt Serene Highneſs, and had afterwards the Honour to dine with him.

Admiralty-Office, May 4, 1727.

Whereas at the Time of fitting out His Majeſty's Fleet, there were Protections granted from and after the 14th Day of February laſt, not only to outward-bound Ships, but to Ships and Veſſels trading Coaſtways, Fiſhing-Veſſels, Peter-Boats, and others, ſeveral of which are now almoſt expired; The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, That all ſuch Protections as have been ſo granted by them, as aforeſaid, or to and other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, notwithſtanding the reſpective Dates thereof, continue in Force for Three Months longer, from this Day, without Renewal; and their Lordſhips have ſtrictly directed all Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and other Officers of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels who now are, or ſhall be employed in impreſſing Men, to have a particular Regard thereunto. By Command of their Lordſhips,

J. Burchett.
